

Journal of Biblical Apologetics

Number 2, Summer 2001, Volume 3

Front Cover Art

The Ecumenical movement comes to a screeching halt over the issue of the nature and position of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. The liberal theologians, who are so anxious to reunite with Rome, cannot swallow the deification of Mary that took her from being a humble maid servant of the Lord, and transformed her into a goddess to be worshiped. The Roman Catholic Church for many centuries had a church outside of Jerusalem where Mary was buried. Then, in the late 19th century, the Roman Church decided to padlock the church doors and to proclaim that Mary had actually ascended to Heaven like Jesus. The painting on the front cover is blasphemy as Mary becomes the center of the worship of Heaven and Earth.

Part1 Modern Roman Catholicism

Journal of Biblical Apologetics,
No. 2, Summer 2001, Vol. 3
Copyright © CSP 2001 All rights reserved.

ISBN No. 1-931230-03-X

Published by:
Christian Scholar's Press, Inc.
1350 E. Flamingo Road, Suite 97
Las Vegas, NV 89119-5263
christianscholarspress@hotmail.com

